Day 5 - From Bustling Mumbai to Coastal Bliss: Hello Goa!

On Day 5 as we bid a fond farewell to the vibrant city of Mumbai, a new chapter unfolds in the laid-back charm of Goa. A short flight transports us to this coastal paradise, where our exploration begins with visits to the iconic Immaculate Conception Church, the quaint neighbourhood of Fontainhas, and the historic Basilica of Born Jesus. These landmarks weave a narrative of Goa's rich cultural and religious heritage. Following the cultural tour, indulge in the leisurely offerings of your resort.

Goa's Historic Beauty: Church of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception

The Immaculate Conception Church in Panaji, Goa, is a remarkable 17th-century Baroque masterpiece dedicated to the Virgin Mary. Its pristine white facade and grand double staircase make it an iconic landmark, attracting visitors not only for its religious significance but also for stunning views of the city and the Mandovi River.

Fontainhas: A Stroll Through Goa's Historic Latin Quarter

Nestled in Panaji, Goa, Fontainhas is a charming Latin Quarter that transports visitors to a bygone era with its well-preserved Portuguese colonial architecture. Its narrow winding streets, colourful houses, art galleries, and taverns contribute to its old-world charm. The area, home to the Chapel of St. Sebastian, exudes a touch of spiritual tranquillity. Fontainhas offers a delightful escape into the past, providing a glimpse of Goa's rich cultural heritage for those seeking a nostalgic journey through time.

Old Goa's Timeless Marvel: Exploring the Basilica of Born Jesus

A jewel in Old Goa, the Basilica of Born Jesus, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a 17th-century marvel of stunning Baroque architecture. Renowned for housing St. Francis Xavier's remains in a silver casket, it unfolds the story of Goa's Christian heritage through intricate altars and captivating frescoes. Beyond its religious significance, the basilica stands as a testament to Goa's history and legacy.
